* Because these schools do not participate in the Common Data Set initiative, Plaintiffs calculated the approximate number of aided undergraduates for JHU, Chicago, and Vanderbilt using data from the latest U.S. News and World Report rankings, which draws from 2019 data submitted to the National Center for Education Statistics. Columbia’s number of aided students was estimated from data published on Columbia’s website.

Vanderbilt*	$6,569,806,000	$131,396,120	3,247	$53,944	$24,473	$40,467
Yale	$7,048,097,000	$140,961,940	3,204	$59,150	$18,600	$43,996
